

EDGEWAVE, INC., PRIVACY POLICY

This notice describes the privacy policy of EdgeWave, Inc. ("EdgeWave", "us", "we", or "our") and is intended to inform you of our policies and procedures regarding the collection, use and disclosure of personal information we receive from users of www.edgewave.com and any subdomains related thereto (collectively, this "Website"). EdgeWave takes your privacy and the security of your information very seriously, and we encourage you to read this privacy policy carefully to understand how we collect and handle your information. This policy describes the type of information our Website collects from you, and the steps we have taken to protect that information.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

When you register with us through the Website, for example to request an online product demonstration, to register for an online webcast or inquire about our products and services then we will ask you for personally identifiable information such as your name, company name, phone number, email address, your state, country, position, industry or title. We use this information mainly to fulfill your requests for information about us or our products, and to contact you about our products or services.

We may also use your information to send you newsletters, marketing or promotional materials and other information that may be of interest to you. If you decide at any time that you no longer wish to receive such communications from us, please follow the unsubscribe instructions provided in any of the communications or update your "user preferences" information. EdgeWave has partnered with select analytics partners ("Analytics Partners") to collect information about how our website is used. Our Analytics Partners may collect information about how many times you visit our Website, what you visit when you explore our Website, and what parts of our Website you access.

LOG DATA

When you visit our Website, our servers record information that your browser sends whenever you visit a website, such as your computer's internet protocol address, browser type, pages on our Website that you visit, how much time you spent on our Website, information you searched on our Website, and other statistical information. We aggregate, analyze and evaluate this information to improve the quality of our Website, and to give you access to more relevant information. .

COOKIES AND BEACONS

Cookies are used on the Website. They are text files with information on the use of the Website (visited Web pages, number of visits, time of visits, duration on individual pages, the browser used, the operating system used, etc.). Cookies can be of a lasting nature – meaning they remain until they are deleted – or temporary, in which case they are deleted, for example when a session ends. As purely text files, cookies do not intervene in your computer’s system, but only influence the presentation of content of the Website you visit. The cookies allow our site to recognize your browser and to track your preferences and usage on the Site. In no case is personal information stored in the cookies. If you would like to waive the advantages of cookies and opt out of the analysis of user behavior, you can delete existing cookies from your browser and block future cookies by means of your browser settings. Use your browser’s Help menu to learn how to make these settings.

Beacons are small graphic files with a unique identifier that are used to track a web or mobile site user’s online movements. Unlike cookies, beacons are embedded on Websites, not downloaded on your computer or device. EdgeWave uses beacons to better manage content on our Website.

As we discussed above, EdgeWave works with our Analytics Partners to improve the quality of our Website, and to give you access to more relevant information. Our Analytics Partners may use session and persistent cookies, tracking beacons or other monitoring technologies.

ACTIVITY TRACKING ACROSS OTHER WEBSITES

When you visit our Website, we don’t currently collect the name of the website you visited from (called the “referring page”) and the name of the website you chose to visit immediately after ours (called the “exit page”), and information about other websites you have recently visited. However, we may decide to do so in the future to improve our Website, but we will not be use the information to identify you from any information we receive from cookies. Also, EdgeWave may decide not to honor the “Do Not Track” settings available on most browsers so that when EdgeWave’s Website detects the Do Not Track signal from your browser, it may still collect referring and exit page information and other information when you visit our Website.

HOW TO STOP RECEIVING MARKETING MESSAGES FROM COMPANY

EdgeWave may send you newsletters and other messages, including marketing emails, about exciting developments with our business, and to alert you to relevant advertisements and other opportunities. We will only send you communications if you give us express permission to do so by completing a form on our app or our Website. You can always choose to stop receiving newsletters or other communications from us by clicking the “unsubscribe” link at the bottom of a EdgeWave marketing message.

BLOG

If you choose to post comments on our blogs, then we will see your name, website and the content of your comments. Providing comments on our blog is voluntary and we strongly recommend that you guard your anonymity and sensitive information.

INFORMATION SHARING

We may share aggregated information that includes your information, and log data with third parties for industry analysis and demographic profiling and to deliver targeted advertising about other products and services. We may share your information with our business partners and channel partners so that they can provide you with information you have requested on a product or service or to pass a sales lead to a channel partner. We may employ third party companies and individuals to facilitate our Website, to provide services associated with the Website on our behalf, to perform Website-related services (e.g., without limitation, maintenance services, database management, web analytics and improvement of the Website's features) or to assist us in analyzing how our Website is used. These third parties have access to your Personal Information only to perform these tasks on our behalf. We will not sell or rent any personally identifiable information to third parties. The third parties are prohibited from using your Personal Information for any other purpose that that for which we engaged them.

EDGEWAVE'S ANALYTICS PARTNERS

EdgeWave's Analytics Partners help us improve the quality of our site, and improve the relevance and frequency of advertisements you receive. We have carefully selected each of our Analytics Partners, and are confident they take your privacy as seriously as we do.

Our Analytics Partners use a variety of techniques to collect de-identified, non-personal information about your visit to our Website. These techniques are discussed above, and may include session and persistent cookies, web-beacons, and other tracking technologies.

In order to make sure you understand how our Analytics Partners handle your information and how they interact with our site, app, or services, we've listed each of our Analytics Partners below, explained what they do, and shared hyperlinks to their Terms of Use. You should visit these pages, as EdgeWave has no ability to control or monitor our Analytics Partners' data collection or data use practices.

and enclose a check for $15 payable to EdgeWave, Inc. If you no longer desire to use the Website and would like us to remove your information in our system, please contact us and we will attempt to accommodate your request provided we do not have a legal obligation to retain the information.

SECURITY

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain accuracy, and ensure proper use of information, we have employed reasonable physical, technical, and administrative processes to safeguard and secure the information we collect. Please remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure and we cannot promise or guarantee that hackers, cybercriminals, or other unauthorized third-parties will not be able to defeat our security, and improperly collect, access, steal, or modify your personal information.

LOCATION OF DATA

Your information may be transferred to—and maintained on—computers located outside of your state, province, country or other governmental jurisdiction where the privacy laws may not be as protective as those in your jurisdiction. If you are located outside the United States and choose to provide information to us, then we transfer Personal Information to the United States and processes it there. If you decide to visit our Website or share your personal information with EdgeWave, you are agreeing to be governed by the laws of the United States, and you are expressly consenting to the transfer of your data to the United States.

OTHER WEBSITES

Our Website may contain links to other websites. If you choose to click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's website. The fact that we link to a website is not an endorsement, authorization or representation of our affiliation with that third party, nor is it an endorsement of their privacy or information security policies or practices. We do not exercise control over third party websites. These other websites may place their own cookies or other files on your computer, collect data or solicit personal information from you. Other sites follow different rules regarding the use or disclosure of the personal information you submit to them. We encourage you to read the privacy policies or statements of the other websites you visit.

CHILDREN

This Site is not directed to persons under 18. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 13. If we become aware that a child under 13 has provided us with Personal Information, we will delete such information from our files.

YOUR CONSENT

By visiting our Website, you consent to our collection, use and sharing of information, including personal information, as described in this Privacy Policy. If we decide to change this Privacy Policy, we will notify you by posting a notice on our Website with a link to our revised policy. Please check this Privacy Policy from time to time to make sure that you are aware of our latest Privacy Policy.

INQUIRIES

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy or believe that EdgeWave is not abiding by this Privacy Policy, you should contact us at info@edgewave.com.
